FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

March 4, 2014

Touring steampunk adaptation of ‘The Fantasticks’ coming to Lackawanna College

SCRANTON, Pa. – Nebraska Theatre Caravan brings the world’s longest-running musical, “The Fantasticks,” to Community Concerts on Saturday, March 29, 2014 at 7 p.m. at the Theater at Lackawanna College.

“The Fantasticks” is a timeless fable of love that manages to be nostalgic and universal at the same time. It is a moving tale of young lovers who become disillusioned, only to discover a more mature, meaningful love. At the heart of its breathtaking poetry and subtle theatrical sophistications lies a purity and simplicity that transcends cultural barriers. Nebraska Theatre Caravan makes their stop in Scranton as part of their 65-city national tour.

Through the creative genius of director Carl Beck, costume designer Georgiann Regan, and scenic designer Jim Othuse comes a fresh steampunk adaptation of this classical musical, which promises to provide an unparalleled experience for those revisiting this show or seeing it for the first time. Audience members may even find themselves humming along to such memorable songs as “Try to Remember” and “Soon It’s Gonna Rain.”

Tickets can be purchased online at www.etix.com, by phone at (570) 955-1455, or through the Box Office, located in Angeli Hall, 501 Vine Street, Scranton, Pa., 18509. Tickets are $40/$30 and $15 with Student ID. Call for group rates.

For more information regarding the season, visit www.lackawanna.edu/communityconcernts.