

The Story

"This isn't a pop up bar, it's a story of Santa's least favorite reindeer and how he spends his off-season."

Who is blitzen?
He's your host.

Welcome to Blitzen's den! You're invited into Blitzen's dimly lit home for a hand-crafted, seasonal cocktail surrounded by his collection of antiques (clues about his life). Everything tells a story: from his paintings, to his book collection, the tiny details allude to his feelings about the other reindeer. How does Blitzen really feel about leading the pack from the back this whole time? Can you spot his deep loath for Rudy? Who his true love is? Look around and learn a little more upon every visit.

We at Blitzen believe in creating a magical experience for our guests. Feel free to make new friends who break out in song around the charmingly untuned piano. Let the reindeer games begin.
