JANE MacKENZIE SCHOLARSHIP

Description

The Jane MacKenzie Scholarship is an annual scholarship awarded in honor of Jane MacKenzie, an alumna of Lackawanna Business College and benefactor of Lackawanna College. Jane also spent many years serving as the business manager of the Century Club, which established this scholarship in her memory. This scholarship is designed to promote Business Education, assist the selected student with college expenses, and encourage high academic achievement.

Criteria

Scholarships are awarded annually to incoming freshmen. Preference for this award will be given to students planning to enroll in one of the college's Business Programs. Candidates for this financial award should be seeking full-time enrollment and must show strong academic ability. Based on need and availability of funds, returning students may be considered after freshman awards have been given.

Award

The amount of the award varies based on need after financial aid (grants only) has been applied to the student's account. The maximum award is $4,000 each semester. The funding is limited to tuition, fees, books, and supplies (as a direct cost). No refunds are available through this scholarship. This is a two-year scholarship as long as the student meets established academic criteria. Returning students receive a one-time scholarship.

Application Procedure

Student must submit the application to the Lackawanna College Admissions Office along with required materials by the application deadline. Selected students will be notified shortly after the deadline. Returning students must submit an essay describing their ability to benefit from the scholarship if applicable.

Deadline

Application deadline for this scholarship is April 1st
